About Governance, Risk & Compliance Services

Governance, Risk and Compliance – the three key pillars of any organisation. At GRCS, we are the trusted advisers of senior management across organisations and institutions from different sectors and industries. Every day will never be the same for us. Our clients span across financial institutions like international, regional and local banks, asset management companies and insurers, to clients in the non-financial services space like large conglomerates, local governments, regulators and well-known high street brands.

We do not just support our clients through performing reviews against regulatory requirements or assisting with internal audit engagements, we provide advice and support them through navigating complexities in risk and regulatory frameworks in Hong Kong and across other jurisdictions. We leverage our expertise to facilitate senior management in making strategic business decisions like streamlining of processes, operations and teams; considerations for outsourcing; setting up of new businesses or onboarding of external vendors; or even restructuring or setting up their risk management or internal audit functions.
