

The Art of Small Talk >>>>

NETWORKING THAT BUILDS REAL RELATIONSHIPS

Small talk is a critical tool that builds rapport, fosters connections, and establishes trust in both professional and personal settings. This training workshop aims to equip participants with tactics for successful communication and relationship building. Whether you are a good communicator looking to gain a professional edge or need to improve in mingling skills and analyzing social styles, this highly practical and interactive course will take your know-how to the next level.

CONVERSATION STARTER

- ✓ Choosing the right topics
- ✓ Finding common ground
- ✓ Polished ways to close

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

- ✓ The Echoing & Responding technique
- ✓ Giving professional compliments
- ✓ Proven rapport-building tactics

SOCIAL INTELLIGENCE

- ✓ Identifying different social styles
- ✓ Strategic communication for all types
- ✓ Reading behavior indicators

SPEAKER

Mr Willson Chu

- Seasoned HR consultant and corporate trainer
- Former Survey Manager in Compensation & Benefits at Watson Wyatt Hong Kong Ltd.
- Extensive experience in Leadership Development, Coaching Skills, and Performance Management

Cantonese with English materials

23 Jun 2026 (Tue)
2:00pm – 5:30pm

HKIHRM, Units 1810-15, 18/F,
Millennium City 2,
378 Kwun Tong Road,
Kwun Tong, Kowloon
(3-minute walk from Ngau Tau Kok MTR station exit A)

Member
HK$ 2,000

New Member
HK$3,245

Ms Bowie Chan (852) 2837 3811 | learning@hkihrm.org