High-performing teams are not built by personality labels, but by understanding motivation, energy, and team dynamics.

This interactive workshop introduces the Enneagram as a practical framework to help leaders and HR professionals understand how individuals contribute differently to a team. Participants will explore how to balance diverse working styles, strengthen trust, and create a more cohesive and effective team environment.

"This course improved my understanding of how Enneagram insights affect communication and team dynamics, helping us collaborate more effectively and build a high-performing mindset."

"The Enneagram tools helped the team work more smoothly, especially during challenges."

"I learned how to build stronger team alignment by appreciating individual strengths and blind spots."

What you will learn:

- Understand how different Enneagram motivations influence team behaviour
- Recognise the three core team energies and how imbalance affects performance
- Use Enneagram insights to improve communication and collaboration
- Apply practical tools to identify hidden team dynamics and performance gaps

Who Should Attend:

- People leaders and team managers
- HR and L&D professionals
- Organisational development practitioners
